SO SWEET

This year marks the 25th anniversary of the namesake jewelry brand of Tamara Comolli (27 Main St., Southampton, 631-283-7600; tamaracomolli.com). To honor the quarter-century milestone, the jeweler has created 25 rose-gold Candy bracelets, a new variation on the brand's iconic Flamenco bracelet. Raised by the sea, Comolli identifies water and the beach-town lifestyle as constant sources of inspiration, making the forever-on-vacation allure and casual luxury of the East End a match made in heaven.

SUMMER LOVIN'

The Surf Lodge (183 Edgemere St., Montauk, 631-483-5037; thesurflodge.com) has paired up with Sarah Chloe (sarahchloe.com) to create a capsule collection to help usher in the end of the summer season. "This collection is meant to be easy, chic jewelry that you can wear from the beach to a night out," says designer Zahava Ryzman. The Summer Edit, consisting of sterling silver and gold vermeil, includes five softly feminine pieces, ranging from delicate hoop earrings to the ideal minimal band ring that goes with everything.
